Les Médiévales de PROVINS

Provins,
ville de foire
médiévale

The medieval town of Provins, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, will host the 41st edition of Les Médiévales on June 13 and 14, 2026!

A true historical re-enactment of the famous Champagne Fairs that made Provins famous in the 12th and 13th centuries, this iconic event immerses you in a timeless experience!

THE BIGGEST MEDIÉVAL FESTIVAL IN FRANCE

During these two exceptional days, the town of Provins will come alive to the sound of oboes, bagpipes and drums: musicians, acrobats and troubadours will set the mood of the medieval festival!

Around every corner, visitors are invited to step back in time and discover daily life in the Middle Ages: demonstrations of ancestral skills and forgotten traditions will come to life before your very eyes. Pottery, blacksmithing, instrument-making, illumination or leatherwork... so many fascinating trades to discover with passionate craftsmen.

Authentic medieval camps will welcome you at the foot of the ramparts, inviting young and old alike to an introduction to the arts of war! Games, demonstrations of epic battles and recreated scenes of daily life promise an authentic immersion.

The fantastical world of medieval legends and beliefs will hold no more secrets for you: mystical creatures, street theatre and wandering performers will guide you to the gates of the imagination!

Your adventure will be highlighted by the GREAT CLASSICS: the traditional MEDIAEVAL BALL on Place du Châtel, the huge MEDIAEVAL CONCERT on Saturday evening and the exceptional COSTUME PARADE on Sunday.

GAMES, JOUSTS, MUSIC, DANCING AND LEGENDS: AN UNFORGETTABLE JOURNEY TO SHARE WITH FAMILY OR FRIENDS!
